

THE TRICKS OF MEDIUMS.

Keller Tells How Easily Great Men Have Been Deceived.

"Well, I'll tell you how I got into the business," said Mr. Keller, the magician, beginning one of his many tales yesterday. "A good friend of mine, who I traveled with, the 'Davenport' brothers, and he used to tell me over and over that his sons were mediums of spiritual power, and that they were called to that mission and that they were called to that mission by divine will. Well, he being an old man, and I a boy, I naturally believed him, especially when I saw their inexplicable tricks. I looked on the brothers with awe, and traveled with them for eight years as assistant. Finally filled with a pious desire to serve the spirits, I told myself, I got hold of a rope alone, I tied my hands the best I could, I initiated the brothers, to see if they didn't care for their act as if they didn't care for my services, and whether I wanted my services or not, I had to do it myself. I studied awhile and practiced making spirits, and finally I got one of the other assistants to be my friend, for I could get out of the ropes, for I had the means of feeding the spirits. The Italian adventurer ever thinks of making his home here. His aim is to get the small sum as estimated by our standard of wealth, which will enable him to return to Italy independently rich. Therefore, he is willing to endure discomfort of mind or body, so long as his bank account is steadily growing. THE JOKE ABOUT YOUR WATER. At a fashionable New York restaurant being possibly an Italian nobleman, has a basis in fact. These aristocrats accept the vicissitudes of fortune-hunting, when they adventurously come to America, in the same spirit that some of the Argonauts of early California days, failing to dig golden fortunes from the mines, took to auriferous accumulation by the greater means of feeding the miners. No Italian adventurer ever thinks of making his home here. His aim is to get the small sum as estimated by our standard of wealth, which will enable him to return to Italy independently rich. Therefore, he is willing to endure discomfort of mind or body, so long as his bank account is steadily growing. ITALIANS ARE THE LOWEST OF NEW YORKERS. In squalor and degradation, though that condition is largely voluntary with them; and so it is not surprising that one of Italy's plenteous counts keeps a cellar baggio in Chatham square, with his family crest over the doorway. Well, it is hard to discriminate nicely between pride and vanity. HERE IS EX-PRESIDENT CHESTER A. ARTHUR. Ought he to pose during the rest of his life, or return to the level of common affairs? The question is understood to have been decided for him by the state of his fortune. His most intimate friend, Steve French, one of our police commissioners, tells me that he has no more than $75,000 to his name—a sum quite insufficient to support him in pleasant idleness. That is just about the same sum that he had on coming into the campaign which elected him to the vice-presidency. He did not spend all his salary of $50,000 a year during his presidency up to the time when the struggle for the nomination began about a year ago, though he gave many costly entertainments in the White House; but what he saved was absorbed in his efforts to be chosen for the place into which chance had put him. Very expensive public meetings in his advocacy were held in this city, a big delegation was sent to Chicago, the services of numerous politicians were commanded, and Arthur paid every bill out of his own pocket. I have it from an acquaintance of his that his present poor health began with, and was caused by the anxiety and disappointment of that canvass. The cares of the presidency never bore heavily upon him, he enjoyed the social side of White House life immensely, his administration had no disasters, and only his failure to get a nomination which, as he felt, was his just due, broke him down physically. He has just returned to New York visibly feeble. The law offices which Arthur has fitted up for his luxurious occupancy adjoin the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. The reason for this is that he expects to strike right into a remunerative practice in cases arising from the business of importation. He was the collector of the port once, and thus became familiar with the methods of the custom house; the weight of his influence may properly be reckoned as an element of success in that direction; the specialty will enable him, more than almost any other in the legal profession here, to do a large business as an advisor without being compelled to figure much in courts; and altogether his new choice of avocation is wise. "Will he take control of Republican party management in New York?" I asked. "He will not," was the positive reply. "He will remain entirely dignified." "With a view to availability as a candidate in 1888?" "Oh, conjecture for yourself." It must be depressing to have to keep one's mind so closely on deportment as Arthur will be compelled to do, in case he has really set out upon such an undertaking. He must have his mind constantly on his gait. That reminds me of

SADIE MARTINOT, A HANDSOME ACTRESS. Now employed at the Lyceum theatre in a role permitting her to wear beautiful costumes. She makes six changes of dress during the play, and each toilet is so elaborate that I wonder how they can be got on and off in the intervals of her acting. They are of widely various character, from a neat walking dress to an intricately involved evening make-up; and it may be new to you, as it was to me until I learned it from this example, that a harmonious carriage ought to go with every distinctive costume. The out-door gown of Miss Martinot's is a simple thing, short as to skirt, and leaving the accompanying gaiters exposed; while the EVENING COSTUME DRAGS ON THE FLOOR. And is chiefly remarkable for a lack of underskirts, so that the satin exterior seems to be superimposed on nothing at all except the very palatable limbs of the fair wearer. Consider the different conditions imposed on the actress by these two dresses, you will comprehend that in the one she must be careful to use her feet gracefully, without much reference to the limbs, while in the other the feet are concealed and every movement of the limbs is as clearly revealed as though she were a skidless ballet girl. With your understanding that, educated, you will be able to appreciate the distress of the dear girl when she exclaimed, after the first performance: "GOODNESS GRACIOUS, I'VE RUINED EVERYTHING." I was confused, don't you know, and what under heaven did I do but introduce all the 'business' of the walking costume when I was wearing the evening toilet, and vice versa. The airs and graces of women, by the way, has this week been audaciously imitated in public by some of our most devotedly fashionable young men. Games were played in the Metropolitan opera house for charity by a number of swells; the female roles being assumed by fellows. There is no more brilliant knight of the parter than Lloyd Warren. On this occasion he appeared in trained and delectable dress, with mustache sacrificed, head wigged, arms and neck powdered, and gait successfully adapted to a portrayal of the affected maidens of the period. Johnny Walmering, a beat of equal estimate in society, personated a lachrymical girl, and the two other chaps also. EXHIBITED THEMSELVES IN PETTICOATS. To an audience largely composed of their acquaintances. The second entertainment was in an Astor parlor, and "Nan the Good-for-Nothing" was impersonated

GOTHAM GOSSIP.

Concert Dives Kept by Italian Count—Ex-President Arthur's Law-Office.

[Correspondence Omaha Herald, April 19.] There are few of the old-fashioned, down-cellar, noise-emitting saloons left in New York City. In passing one of these remnants of a by-gone phase of New York vice and having my ears commanded wilfully by the loud banging of a piano and the blaring of a cornet, my eyes fell on what looked like a coat-of-arms painted into the red-lettered name of the resort. The device was in such perfect accord with the rules of heraldry, that I stopped to inspect it, and then to find out why it was there at all. My investigation satisfied me that the keeper of this vile place was a genuine Italian count, entitled by birth to the use of the escutcheon which he was so shamefully blotching. There was nothing astonishing in the discovery. THE JOKE ABOUT YOUR WATER. At a fashionable New York restaurant being possibly an Italian nobleman, has a basis in fact. These aristocrats accept the vicissitudes of fortune-hunting, when they adventurously come to America, in the same spirit that some of the Argonauts of early California days, failing to dig golden fortunes from the mines, took to auriferous accumulation by the greater means of feeding the miners. No Italian adventurer ever thinks of making his home here. His aim is to get the small sum as estimated by our standard of wealth, which will enable him to return to Italy independently rich. Therefore, he is willing to endure discomfort of mind or body, so long as his bank account is steadily growing. ITALIANS ARE THE LOWEST OF NEW YORKERS. In squalor and degradation, though that condition is largely voluntary with them; and so it is not surprising that one of Italy's plenteous counts keeps a cellar baggio in Chatham square, with his family crest over the doorway. Well, it is hard to discriminate nicely between pride and vanity. HERE IS EX-PRESIDENT CHESTER A. ARTHUR. Ought he to pose during the rest of his life, or return to the level of common affairs? The question is understood to have been decided for him by the state of his fortune. His most intimate friend, Steve French, one of our police commissioners, tells me that he has no more than $75,000 to his name—a sum quite insufficient to support him in pleasant idleness. That is just about the same sum that he had on coming into the campaign which elected him to the vice-presidency. He did not spend all his salary of $50,000 a year during his presidency up to the time when the struggle for the nomination began about a year ago, though he gave many costly entertainments in the White House; but what he saved was absorbed in his efforts to be chosen for the place into which chance had put him. Very expensive public meetings in his advocacy were held in this city, a big delegation was sent to Chicago, the services of numerous politicians were commanded, and Arthur paid every bill out of his own pocket. I have it from an acquaintance of his that his present poor health began with, and was caused by the anxiety and disappointment of that canvass. The cares of the presidency never bore heavily upon him, he enjoyed the social side of White House life immensely, his administration had no disasters, and only his failure to get a nomination which, as he felt, was his just due, broke him down physically. He has just returned to New York visibly feeble. The law offices which Arthur has fitted up for his luxurious occupancy adjoin the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. The reason for this is that he expects to strike right into a remunerative practice in cases arising from the business of importation. He was the collector of the port once, and thus became familiar with the methods of the custom house; the weight of his influence may properly be reckoned as an element of success in that direction; the specialty will enable him, more than almost any other in the legal profession here, to do a large business as an advisor without being compelled to figure much in courts; and altogether his new choice of avocation is wise. "Will he take control of Republican party management in New York?" I asked. "He will not," was the positive reply. "He will remain entirely dignified." "With a view to availability as a candidate in 1888?" "Oh, conjecture for yourself." It must be depressing to have to keep one's mind so closely on deportment as Arthur will be compelled to do, in case he has really set out upon such an undertaking. He must have his mind constantly on his gait. That reminds me of

SADIE MARTINOT, A HANDSOME ACTRESS. Now employed at the Lyceum theatre in a role permitting her to wear beautiful costumes. She makes six changes of dress during the play, and each toilet is so elaborate that I wonder how they can be got on and off in the intervals of her acting. They are of widely various character, from a neat walking dress to an intricately involved evening make-up; and it may be new to you, as it was to me until I learned it from this example, that a harmonious carriage ought to go with every distinctive costume. The out-door gown of Miss Martinot's is a simple thing, short as to skirt, and leaving the accompanying gaiters exposed; while the EVENING COSTUME DRAGS ON THE FLOOR. And is chiefly remarkable for a lack of underskirts, so that the satin exterior seems to be superimposed on nothing at all except the very palatable limbs of the fair wearer. Consider the different conditions imposed on the actress by these two dresses, you will comprehend that in the one she must be careful to use her feet gracefully, without much reference to the limbs, while in the other the feet are concealed and every movement of the limbs is as clearly revealed as though she were a skidless ballet girl. With your understanding that, educated, you will be able to appreciate the distress of the dear girl when she exclaimed, after the first performance: "GOODNESS GRACIOUS, I'VE RUINED EVERYTHING." I was confused, don't you know, and what under heaven did I do but introduce all the 'business' of the walking costume when I was wearing the evening toilet, and vice versa. The airs and graces of women, by the way, has this week been audaciously imitated in public by some of our most devotedly fashionable young men. Games were played in the Metropolitan opera house for charity by a number of swells; the female roles being assumed by fellows. There is no more brilliant knight of the parter than Lloyd Warren. On this occasion he appeared in trained and delectable dress, with mustache sacrificed, head wigged, arms and neck powdered, and gait successfully adapted to a portrayal of the affected maidens of the period. Johnny Walmering, a beat of equal estimate in society, personated a lachrymical girl, and the two other chaps also. EXHIBITED THEMSELVES IN PETTICOATS. To an audience largely composed of their acquaintances. The second entertainment was in an Astor parlor, and "Nan the Good-for-Nothing" was impersonated by Willie Martin, interesting through his ship to something like a million.

The Boston girl never says: "Don't you forget it." She merely remarks: "Pray allow not the remembrance of this circumstance to be relegated to oblivion." Then she readjusts her spectacles and beams blandly on her helpless victim.

HOTELS AND RESTAURANTS.

VALLEY HOUSE
Opp. Temple and Tabernacle,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

CONNECTED WITH THIS HOUSE ARE 8 COTTAGES,
In the immediate vicinity of the Main Hotel.

SECLUDED, BUT CONVENIENT.
BOARD AND LODGING, - - $2 per day
(According to Room.)

Quiet, Shady, Homelike.

ANDREW C. BRIXEN, Prop.

REMEMBER
—THE OLD—
JUNCTION CITY HOTEL

—OGDEN, UTAH,—
CENTRALLY LOCATED.
Is now open, and Everything First-Class.

RATES, $1.25 TO $2.00 PER DAY.

Wm. D. WADLEY, Prop.

ST. JAMES HOTEL,
Main St. South of Third South St.

FITTED UP THROUGHOUT IN FIRST-CLASS
style. The finest and most comfortable
Hotel apartments in Salt Lake City.
Special Terms to Families, both for Single Rooms and Suites.
Transient, $2.00 per day.

A. GREENE WADLEY, Prop.

DENVER HOUSE.
Opp. D. & R. G. Depot, Salt Lake City.

J. J. KEENAN, Proprietor.

TRAVELERS WILL FIND SUPPLIES OF all kinds in Eatables and Groceries, Choice
Cigars and Tobacco.
First-class meals 25 cents.

BREWERY AND SALOONS.

A. FISHER BREWING CO.
Brewery near U. C. R. R. and D. & R. G. Depots,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

We are now prepared to supply the Public with Keg and Bottled Beer!

Of Superior Quality
At Popular Prices.

HEADQUARTERS.

The City Depot for the celebrated Albert Fisher Beer is at

Tufts & Nystrom's
Popular Beer Hall, 109 S. Main St.

Where will always be found a supply of our Keg & Bottled Beer!

Orders Solicited and Promptly Attended To.

BREWERY: P. O. Box 1047; Telephone, 294.
HEADQUARTERS at Tufts & Nystrom's; Telephone 179.

A. FISHER BREWING CO.

The Fisher Beer Hall!

Main Street, Two Doors South of Postoffice.

HAVE ALWAYS ON HAND THE FINEST
Wines, Liquors and Cigars that the market affords.

The A. Fisher Brewing Company's Celebrated Beer

Always on Draught, Fresh and Cool.

Any orders left with us for the above beer will receive prompt attention.

TOMNEY & HILLSTEAD, Props.
Telephone No. 210.

The Old Reliable
CALIFORNIA BREWERY

Is again this year, 1885, producing the Finest Lager Beer

IN THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS.

Bottled Beer a Specialty.

Try it and be convinced.

Office, 17 and 19 E. 2d South Street
Salt Lake City.

HENRY WACENER, Prop'r.

THE WYOMING
Hereford Association,

OF WYOMING.

Have opened a SALES YARD at the place formerly known as "Pitts' Gardens," where can always be found

HIGH GRADE AND THOROUGHbred
Herefords
FOR SALE.

GEO. F. MORGAN,
General Mgr. et.

AUCTIONS AT BAMBERGER'S.

PRIVATE SALE

During the Day.

A Large Consignment!

Just Received,

To be Sold Without Reserve!

CONSISTING OF

Children and Boys' Suits, ranging from $2 up!

Men's Cassimere Suits, " $5 "

Cassimere Pants, " $2 "

Coats, " $3 "

Blue Flannel Business Suits at $7

A LARGE ASSORTMENT OF

Merchant Tailor Misfits!

CONSISTING OF

Fine Diagonal and Corkscrew

Pants and Suits!

ALSO A LOT OF

Havana and Domestic

CIGARS!

By the Box or Thousand only.

Stock Now Ready for Inspection!

SIGN: Red Flag 2 Doors South of Postoffice,

MAIN STREET.

WAGONS, BUGGIES, REAPERS, PLOWS, ETC.

BAIN WAGON DEPOT.

HOWARD SEBREE COMPANY

Keep a Full Stock of These Celebrated Wagons.

Concord Buggies, Spring Wagons,

Oliver Chilled Plows, Moline Plows,

Casaday and Flying Dutchman Sulky Plows.

CHAMPION MACHINES

And a Full Line of Agricultural Goods. Hardwood and Wagon Materials a Specialty. Call on or Address

HOWARD SEBREE CO.,
Salt Lake City or Ogden, Utah.

GEO. A. LOWE.

Salt Lake City and Ogden, Utah.

SCHUTTLEFARM FREIGHT WAGONS,

—AND FIRST-CLASS—

Open and Top Buggies,

WARRANTED OF BEST QUALITY AND SOLD AT VERY LOW PRICES.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS OF ALL KINDS

DERICK HAY PRESSES, BALING TIES AND BALING WIRE,

Knowles Steam Pumps For all Purposes. All Sizes Constantly in Stock.

AMES PORTABLE STEAM ENGINES, LEFFEL TURBINE WHEELS,

SAW MILLS AND SHINGLE MILLS.

Correspondence solicited. Enquiries answered promptly.

RAILROADS.

THE Chicago, Milwaukee,
AND
ST. PAUL

RAILWAY COMPANY

The Last Built, Best Equipped

AND SHORTEST LINE

BETWEEN
COUNCIL BLUFFS

AND CHICAGO,

AND ALL POINTS EAST.

The Scenic Line

OF THE WORLD.

Denver & Rio Grande

WESTERN R. R.

THE POPULAR

Trans-Continental Route

BETWEEN—
Salt Lake, Gunnison, Leadville,
Pueblo and Denver.

At which latter points DIRECT CONNECTIONS are made with trains for

Kansas City, Omaha, Chicago,
St. Louis,

And all Principal Points in the United States and Canada.

Train leaves Salt Lake EVERY DAY at 4:55 p.m.,
connecting with Central Pacific for the West.

THE ATLANTIC EXPRESS TRAIN, COMposed of the celebrated Buffet and Sleeping Cars, elegant first-class Coaches and Emigrant Sleeping Cars, will leave Ogden daily at 9:30 a.m. (on arrival of train from San Francisco), and Salt Lake City at 10:25 a.m., making direct connection at Pueblo and Denver with trains for the East, North and South.

LOCAL TRAINS leave Salt Lake for Ogden at 8:45 a.m.
Leave Ogden at 8:40 p.m. and arrive in Salt
Lake at 7:30 p.m.

Leave Salt Lake daily for Brigham at 7:25
a.m. Returning, arrive at Salt Lake at 4:15 p.m.
AN ACCOMMODATION TRAIN leaves Salt
Lake daily (except Sundays) at 5:40 a.m., arriving at Pleasant Valley Junction at 4:25 p.m.
Returning, leaves Pleasant Valley Junction at 7:30 a.m., arriving at Salt Lake at 6:30 p.m.

S. W. Eccles,
General Freight and Passenger Agent, D. & R.
G. Western, Salt Lake City.

W. H. BANCROFT, Receiver.

Utah Central R. R.

Passenger Trains leave Salt Lake daily, as follows:
GOING NORTH—Atlantic Express at 8:00 a.m.
GOING SOUTH—Express at 7:25 a.m.

Passenger Trains Arrive in Salt Lake, daily,
as follows:
FROM NORTH—Atlantic Express at 7:51 p.m.
FROM SOUTH—Express at 6:40 p.m.

JOHN SHARP,
Gen'l Sup't.

FRANCIS COPE,
Gen'l Frt. & Pass. Agt.

Sanpete Valley Rail'ry

Trains leave daily as follows:
Leave Moroni 9:00 a.m.
Arrive at Nephi 11:00 a.m.

Leave Nephi 12:00 p.m.
Arrive at Moroni 2:00 p.m.

Stages connect at Moroni for all parts of San Petee and Sevier.

Private teams and spring wagons can be ordered by telephone at Nephi, to be ready on arrival of trains at Moroni. Price, $4 per day, driver paying all his own expenses.

S. BAMBERGER, Manager.

LAND OFFICE NOTICES.

Notice for Publication.
(No. 1934.)

U. S. LAND OFFICE,
SALT LAKE CITY, March 29, 1885.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT THE following named settlers have filed notice of their intention to make final proof of their claims against the said land, to be made before the Register and Receiver at Salt Lake City, on Saturday, April 25, 1885, to wit:

James Hope, Homestead Entry No. 4,608, for the S. W. 1/4 Sec. 3, T. 4 S., R. 1 E., and he names as his witnesses, Amos Thompson,
William Thompson, John Spencer and Benj.
Thompson, all of Salt Lake County, Utah.

Gustave Hansen, Homestead Entry No. 4,707, for the S. E. 1/4 Sec. 18, T. 5 N., R. 2 W., and he names as his witnesses, Hyrum Goodell, John Smoot, Robert Todd and E. Van Dyke, of Weber County, Utah.

H. MCMASTER, Register.

BIRD & LOWE, Attys. for Appls.

LEGAL NOTICES.

Notice to Creditors.

Estate of WILLIAM H. PITTS, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE UN-
designed, administrator of the Estate of William H. Pitts, deceased, to the creditors of
and all persons having claims against the said
deceased, to exhibit them with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice, to the said administrator, at the office of Sheeks & Rawlins, 42 East
Temple street, in the county of Salt Lake,
State of Utah.

ISRAEL M. PITTS, Administrator of the Estate of William H. Pitts, deceased.
Dated at Salt Lake City, March 25, 1885.

Notice to Creditors.

Estate of JAMES WATSON, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE UN-
designed, administrator of the estate of James Watson, deceased, to the creditors of
and all persons having claims against the said
deceased, to exhibit them with the necessary
vouchers, within four months after the first
publication of this notice, to the said administrator, at the store of Tucker & Wallace, in Alta
City, Salt Lake County, Utah.

HENRY C. WALLACE, Administrator.

Date of first publication, March 31, 1885.

MOUNTAIN ICE CO.,

56 and 58 SECOND SOUTH STREET,

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in ICE!

A large supply of ice of first-class purity always on hand.

Daily Deliveries

Promptly attended to. Come and see us.

J. HEIL, Jr., Secretary.

MEDICAL.

DR. C. W. HIGGINS,
Microscopic and Analytical Physician.

THE MOST RELIABLE SPECIALIST.

Cures Fits in their worst forms, and all Chronic Diseases, Seminal Weakness, Syphilis to all its forms, Gonorrhea, Gleet, and all diseases of a private and confidential nature. Dr. H. has made these diseases a specialty for the past fifteen years. Dr. H. has been in this city for the past thirteen years, and in that time has cured over 1,000 of the above diseases.

Suffering friends don't delay; call at once and put yourself under Dr. H.'s treatment.

The knowledge of disease is half its cure.

Many have been rescued from the grasp of disease and death by my medicines, who were given up as incurable by friends and physicians;
for the proof of this, call and get their addresses, and see them for yourselves.

CONSULTATION FREE. Medicine given away to the poor.

DR. H. can be consulted daily at his office, NO. 272, Main St.

To the Unfortunate!

Dr. P. STEINHART,
SPECIALIST.

Can be consulted at his office, 261 Main Street,
Room No. 1, Union Block.

Has been treating the following diseases for the last twenty-five years, in London, Dublin and San Francisco, and has been established in Salt Lake City the last two years.

For the treatment of all Seminal diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness and Impotency. Loss of Nerve permanently cured.

The sick and afflicted should not fail to call on him.

Persons cured at home. Call or write.
Communications strictly confidential.
Medicine sent everywhere, in Pill or Liquid form.

Cancer, Tapeworm and Piles Successfully treated.

Office Hours from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.
Sundays, from 10 to 12 a. m.

PATENT NOTICES.